

Rally Info Job Description

This is a great way to get to interact with the rally teams and everyone involved with the rally. You will have the opportunity to greet and talk to all the competitors and have the time and opportunity to also watch the action up close.

Vision:

What you deliver: Helpful rally information to the public as well as competitors

How you deliver: Make it easy for everyone to understand what and where things are happening at HDT (have copies of anything anyone could want)

Responsibilities:

Distribute rally materials and information at the host hotel

Handle phone inquiries about the event (in the future)

Make additional Xeroxes of materials as needed

Distribute rally materials and information at the motorsports facility

Rally Info Checklist:

◇ Rally Info table (and phone – in the future) at host hotel

Distribute programs, Spectator guides, Competitor Bios, Standings, Press Notes, etc (in the future - Handle phone calls wrt schedule, how to get to headquarters, etc)

Act as point of contact for people trying to connect with each other

• Friday 6 to 8 PM: (if possible): help with competitor, volunteer, and spectator materials at host hotel

• Saturday 7 to 8 AM: Rally Info with expected emphasis on late competitors and volunteers – help with above materials at host hotel

• Saturday 9 AM to 7 PM:

◇ Rally Info at the Ridgecrest Motorsports Facility

Set up near the entrance/exit of the parking (can sit with or be part of MTC workers)

Spectator and general Rally Info with emphasis on general schedule of activities, when does it start, can I watch, where are the bathrooms, etc

Act as a point of contact for people trying to connect with each other (especially the organizers)
